MADISON OUT, FIGHTS FOR THIRD PLACE

Superior Outclassed the Local Team in Game This Morning

WALSH, SICK, IN GAME

Racine Beaten by Neenah in Score of 19 to 10; Big Crowd Present

It was announced this morning that the afternoon games in the consolation series scheduled for 2:15 and 3:15 have been called off. Two games remain, which will be played tonight, starting at 7:15.

Madison will take the floor against Racine at 7:15 tonight to fight for third place and the consolation cup. The Superior team will play Neenah immediately afterward for the championship.

Superior won its way into the finals by completely outclassing Madison this morning, winning 25 to 8. The local quintet was unable to do anything against the strong five from the north. Led by Nevers and Hancock, the Superior team worked down the floor for goal after goal.

Bud Walsh, star local forward, who was stricken with an attack of tonsillitis and kept out of the Stevens Point game, played the entire game. He got out of bed against doctor's orders to go up to the gym, and his playing was far from his usual form. His weakened condition worked against him, as well as against the whole team.

Schultz and his sprained ankle also performed during the contest, and the lanky Madison center caged the only field goals made by the team. Try as they might, the local boys could not break up the Superior offense. Walsh made 4 free throws for the other points.

The team was greeted on its appearance on the floor at 10 a. m. by the largest crowd of the tourney. Madison high school turned out en masse to witness the contest. On the opposite side of the gym, the cluster of rosters from Superior, who had made the trip to Madison in box cars and on break beams did their best to drown out the Madison yelling.

BEAT TREATY, DECLARE FOR PEACE, PLAN

Resolution Introduced in Congress to End State of War

MOVE BY TINKHAM

Treaty is Taken to the White House Today by Senate Officials

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON—The treaty of Versailles was returned to President Wilson today by the senate after it had failed of ratification last night for a fourth time.

There was no intimation as to what President Wilson would do with the treaty. White house officials said the usual procedure would be to send it to the state department for "burial" in the archives there. The document which was delivered to the senate by the president in person last July 10, was taken to the white house by George A. Sanderson, secretary of the senate. He was accompanied by two senate clerks and the party was received by Rudolph Forster, executive clerk of the white house.

Mr. Forster did not accept the treaty, however, the visitors being referred to Secretary Tumulty.

Mr. Tumulty was with the president at the time and when he returned to the executive offices he received the treaty he said there would be no statement from the president.

The senate was not in session today but when the house met, Rep. Tinkham, rep., Mass., offered a joint resolution declaring a state of peace between the United States and Germany. Under the resolution Germany would recognize all rights which the United States might have had under the Versailles treaty.

Should Germany fail to agree to this, the president would be authorized to prohibit resumption of trade relations.

Mr. Tinkham said: "Common sense and the logic of events dictate this course much more powerfully now than when the treaty failed last November."

"The present anomalous condition of the U. S. being neither at peace nor at war with Germany is neither marked by dignity nor common sense," declared Mr. Tinkham. "A

JURORS IN AGREEMENT EARLY

Roger Andrews and Wm. J. Mickel, Oshkosh, Are Among Those Convicted; Andrews Given 1 Year and Six Months

17 Are Found Guilty In The Newberry Case at Grand Rapids

The following were found guilty: Truman H. Newberry, Detroit. Hannibal A. Hopkins, St. Clair. Geo. S. Ladd, Strubridge, Mass. James F. McGregor, Detroit. Wm. J. Mickel, Oshkosh, Wis. John S. Newberry, Detroit. Milton Oakman, Detroit. Allan A. Templeton, Detroit. Harry O. Turner, Detroit. All other defendants were found not guilty.

BULLETIN

GRAND RAPIDS—Senator Newberry announced this afternoon "he would continue to represent in the U. S. Senate the people who elected me."

(By the Associated Press)

GRAND RAPIDS—Senator Truman H. Newberry and 16 of his 84 co-defendants were found guilty of criminal conspiracy in the 1918 senatorial election by a jury in the U. S. District court here today.

Sentences were pronounced upon the convicted men this afternoon as follows: Senator Newberry, two years in Leavenworth and $10,000 fine.

Frederick Cody, 2 years in Leavenworth and $10,000 fine. Paul King, 2 years in Leavenworth and $10,000 fine. Chas. A. Floyd, 2 years in Leavenworth and $5,000 fine. William J. Mickel, two years. Allan A. Templeton, one year and six months. Roger M. Andrews, one year and six months. Milton Oakman, one year and six months. Richard H. Fletcher, one year and three months. James F. McGregor, one year and 3 months. Fred Henry, one year and 3 months. Hannibal Hopkins, one year and one day. E. V. Chilson, one year and one day. John S. Newberry, fined $10,000. Harry O. Turner, fined $2,000. B. Frank Emery, fined $2,000. George S. Ladd, fined $1,000. Judge Sessions overruled motion for a new trial pending an appeal.

Besides the senator the men convicted were his brother, John S. Newberry, Paul King, his campaign manager, Frederick Cody, New York legislative agent, Chas. Floyd, Grand Rapids, Allan A. Templeton, president of the Detroit Board of Commerce; Hannibal Hopkins, publicity director; B. Frank Emery, office manager; Harry O. Turner, Detroit; E. V. Chilson, of the National Republican headquarters; Roger Andrews; Menominee publisher; Milton Oakman, Detroit politician; Wm. J. Mickel, Oshkosh, Wis.; Richard Fletcher, State labor commissioner; James F. McGregor, Detroit; Fred Henry, Flint and George S. Ladd, Strubridge, Mass.

All other defendants were acquitted on the first charge and none was found guilty on sixth count.

Testimony offered by the defense was the determining factor in bringing the jury to the verdict of guilty. "Without Paul King's testimony that he told Senator Newberry the campaign would cost $50,000 the government had a weak case and without the King-Newberry letters no case at all," said one of the jurors. "We could find no other way however, after the defense itself had supplemented the scanty government proof that Newberry had taken an active part in the campaign and shown by his own writings that he directed almost every important move."

BLIED ARGUES FOR MUNICIPAL R. R. OWNERSHIP

The People Should be Given the Chance to Decide Question

Pointing to the success of municipal ownership of the waterworks, and to the fact that this proposition was opposed as is the referendum on the question of the street car today, Frank C. Blied, candidate for mayor, said that if Madison could make a success of the waterworks plant it could of the street car property. He pointed out that under a law passed at the last session of the legislature, the plant could be bonded by the city, as a private plant is bonded, and that no expenditure of the taxpayers' money is required.

"We live in a democracy where the people rule," said Mr. Blied. "A referendum allows the people themselves to settle the problems by their own votes. Whose government is this if it is not the people's? The government is maintained for the benefit of all the people not for the benefit of a few financial bosses. The government is maintained for the protection of the weak and poor as well as the strong. It is not maintained to protect the rich and their ill gotten gains. Seventy-five years ago the supreme court of Wisconsin through its great Chief Justice Dixon held that the government of Wisconsin was superior to any corporation. The government of Madison is superior to any corporation that exists in the city of Madison and the people of Madison make up the government of Madison and have the right to vote the kind of government they want in Madison. If the people of Madison want to take over the street car company's property that is their own business but the people have the right to say so."

"I remember well some 30 odd years ago when the question of municipal ownership of the water company was being agitated in the city of Madison. The same class of men who are now opposing the referendum on the street car situation were out in opposition to building the water works. Some of the men of wealth in this town at that time tried to tell the people that if municipal ownership of water works was adopted it would be a failure; that Madison would stand out as an example for all other cities in the country because of adopting such a socialistic plan."

"There lived in the city of Madison at that time a far-seeing man. His name was James Conklin, then mayor of the city. He took up the leadership for municipal ownership of water works. With the assistance of the late Mayor John B. Hain, the city and today city plant stands as a record among other cities of the United States as an efficiently managed institution, and where is there a city in the country that can boast of a purer and cheaper water supply than is given the city of Madison?"

"You will always find those who will grumble about letting the people run their own government, but as for me I am willing to follow in the footsteps of James Conklin, and I am willing that the people of Madison shall say for themselves whether they ought to buy the street car property or not. What Madison has done with the water works plant it can do if it buys the street car plant."

"If the people should vote to buy the street car property by referendum vote, it will probably not be necessary to expend a single dollar of the taxpayers' money to take over the property. A law enacted at the last session of the legislature gives a municipality the right to bond a municipal plant the same as provided for corporations and by the method of issuing serial bonds Madison can buy the street car property, operate it without investing a single dollar of the taxpayers' money and within a few years will be the owner of this property under the rate of profit which is allowed the street car company."

Leslie Carr and Dona'd Weaver Start For Reformatory To Serve Sentences

Taken to Green Bay Following Sentences Imposed Yesterday; Youngster Tells of His Experiences in Robbing Local Places

LESLIE CARR and Donald Weaver left Saturday morning for Green Bay in the custody of William McCormick, undersheriff, to begin serving sentences in the state reformatory imposed in superior court Friday afternoon when the boys pleaded guilty to a charge of having taken an automobile without the owner's permission. Leslie was sentenced to three years, and Donald to two years.

John Lancaster, another of the boys implicated in the recent robberies, was paroled to T. C. Purcell, probation officer, for two years by Judge Hoppmann Friday afternoon. Disposition of other cases has not been made. Other boys who were included in the band headed by Leslie, probably will appear in juvenile court later, according to Roman C. Heilman, district attorney.

Starting from a bluff that they would be afraid to do the things that thieves in detective stories do the lads kept on with their attempts at robbery until it became natural for them. They found the game exciting, more exciting than school work or regular play.

When describing his experiences to Judge Hoppmann Carr said: "The first time I took anything my father punished me for it. I have taken a lot of things in my life but nothing that really amounted to much until January 13."

The Madison Leather Goods

company, 416 State street, was the first place entered. The boys wandered around to the back end of the store.

"I tried to raise the catch on the window with my knife," said Carr. "I cut the putty away and that made the glass crack. That was too slow so I stuck my fist through the pane. I picked up four purses and found 22 cents in the cash register."

"The next thing Weaver and I did was to enter two offices. This was two days later in the Gay building. We got in with a paltry knife. We took a $500 liberty bond, some stamps and about $3."

It was a week before the boys tried again. This time they entered the office of the Beavers in the Gay building. From then on they have kept up their petty thieveries, entering the Washington building, Menges drug stores, the telephone office, Harry Sauthoff's office, the office of Otto W. Levander, as well as a downtown office in Janesville.

Soon the art of entering buildings lost its charm for the boys and they decided to try stealing automobiles. This was about March 10. The first car taken was stolen that night from the parking place in front of the Masonic temple. They did not go back to entering buildings but kept their energies centered on auto thieving until last Saturday when they were arrested.

PLANS DISCUSSED FOR BEAUTIFYING OF LAKE STREET

Residents in 400 Block Consider Plans for Attractive Improvement

Plans to beautify the 400 block of N. Lake st. were considered at a meeting of the residents of the block Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. John Hausmann. Prof. F. A. Aust of the university gave an instructive talk illustrated with lantern slides.

A committee was formed with Mrs. Karl Young as chairman. Other members are Mrs. John Hausmann, Miss Clara Dengler, Miss A. Sutherland, Prof. S. M. Babcock, T. H. King, C. B. Nelson and F. P. Morrissey. This committee is to be in charge of the beautifying plans and will consider methods with which to raise the money to carry out the work. Trees and shrubbery will be planted making the plots uniform. In speaking of Prof. Aust's work, Mrs. Hausmann said that although the professor had been in the university for the past five years, he had received only three calls from Madison for lectures on beautifying the city, and 14 calls from other important cities in Wisconsin who had heard of him and the work he is doing. She also said that Madison had so much natural beauty it was criminal neglect not to beautify those spots that need only a few trees, flowers or shrubs to conform with the rest of the landscape.

Those who attended the meeting were Mrs. Young, Miss Mary L. Edgar, Miss Sutherland, Miss Clara Dengler, Miss Yeager, Mrs. Elsie Finney, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. W. Chase, Miss Leslie Spence, Miss Pauline Hoebel, Prof. Aust, Miss J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Morrissey and Mrs. Hausmann.

MAKE MAPLE SUGAR, IF YOU HAVE TREES

R. A. Moore of Ag College Says Now is the Time for a Sugar Bush

Badger farmers, particularly in the northern part of the state, are overlooking opportunities at this very season of obtaining delicious maple syrup and sugar for home use and for sale.

Thousands of excellent maple groves and trees exist in upper Wisconsin, according to R. A. Moore, old sugar man, well known plant breeder at the College of Agriculture.

"This question is of considerable interest just now on account of the sugar shortage," said Mr. Moore, "but it should be interesting anyway because maple sugar syrup is such a peculiarly fine product, different and far superior to any products like it, as thousands of people will testify. The process of making the syrup is not complicated, and tapping does not injure the trees in the least. We used to cut a gash into the tree to secure a run, but now a small bit is used to bore a hole into the trunk at a slight upward slant, and about 1 1/2 to 2 inches in depth."

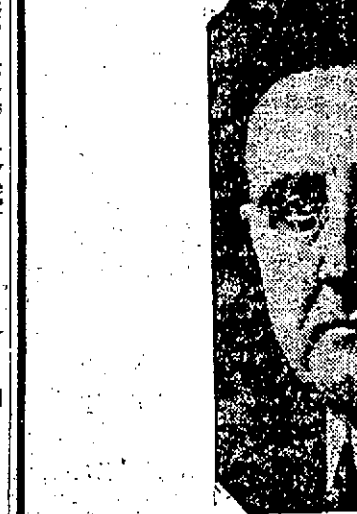

"The season of warm days and cool nights, just preceding the time when the first buds appear on the trees, is the best time to begin operations. The earlier runs are the sweetest and yield the best product. Personally I wish that people in northern Wisconsin would see the opportunities for not only producing the sugar and syrup for the market, but for securing a delicious product for home use. I would like to see this done more generally."

TELEPHONE EXPERT TALKS TO ENGINEERS

H. S. Osborne, transmission engineer for the American Telegraph and Telephone company, spoke last night in the Engineering auditorium on "Telephone Transmission of the Human Voice" and recent advances and discoveries made along that line. Mr. Holmes stated that the principle in telephone transmission is in changing acoustic energy to electric waves and back again, and that the feeble energy of the voice controls a much greater energy in the telephone circuit, a telephone which is one-tenth of one per cent being considered a very good instrument.

Ignorance Causes Most Ill Health Says Dr. E. M. Blake

Talk Given to Madison Women at Senate Chamber Friday

"Ignorance is responsible for more ill health than any other cause," asserted Dr. E. M. Blake of New York City in a short talk on "Health" before a group of Madison women in the Senate Chamber at 5 p. m. Friday.

The recent war in which so many men were declared not physically fit for service has caused the women of the world to wake up and consider this neglected subject of health in a more serious manner," continued Doctor Blake.

The wonderful work which is being carried on by the Health Center of New York City was explained by Doctor Blake. This center which was established as a result of the International Conference of Women Physicians that met in New York some time ago, aims to instruct the vast crowds that efficiency in health can be gained by knowledge and routine.

"Unless one is able to infuse fun into routine work the joy in living is missed" concluded Doctor Blake.

SOVIET PARTY ORGANIZING IN GREAT BRITAIN

Communists to Make Fusion and Join Third Internationale

(By the Associated Press) LONDON—Steps are being taken in Great Britain to form a communist party affiliated with the third international, the ultimate aim being to create a "revolutionary communist party," says the Daily Herald, organ of labor.

It is hoped to form the party from a fusion of existing left wing organizations, the newspaper says, and in the meantime active work for the organization of local communist bodies called "social soviets" is going on.

Stomach Trouble and Constipation Ended

Suffered So He Couldn't Work for a year, but Mr. McCormick Was Cured Promptly.

"I had stomach trouble and constipation for five years. One year of this time I was unable to work, suffering with indigestion. I consulted with some of the best physicians, also took many proprietary medicines, but could not find permanent relief. Finally a friend recommended Milk Emulsion. The first few doses relieved me greatly, and three bottles of it effected a permanent cure."—G. A. McCormick, Anderson, Ind.

Mr. McCormick is only one of many hundreds who have endured torture for years and then found that Milk Emulsion gives blessed relief and real lasting benefit. It costs nothing to try. Milk Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milk Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whose sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day. This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Truly wonderful for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milk Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milk Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere. "Guaranteed by the Lucky Pharmacies."—Adv.

ROBERT M. LaFOLLETTE

"The people have never failed in any great crisis of our history. They have been betrayed by their representatives again and again. The real danger to democracy is not in the ignorance and want of patriotism of the people, but in the corrupting influence of powerful business organizations—the profiteers—upon the representatives of the people. The real cure for the ills of democracy is more democracy.

"Here in Wisconsin we must hold the high ground we have gained and advance still further the standards of public right and human justice."—Robert M. La Follette.

TUESDAY, APRIL 6th, next, 'town-meeting day' the people will vote for President of the United States—not directly, but for delegates who will name the candidate who will become the next president. If the voters fail to select delegates that truly represent them they may forfeit their opportunity to name a president of their choice.

Their choice now lies between delegates who pledge themselves to a platform of principles, and to stand for a candidate to represent the common people—those who work for their living—and, on the other hand, an "uninstructed" delegation pledged to profound silence. These are the issues of the day.

The pledged candidates are known as "La Follette Progressive Republicans" and they stand squarely for America, for Americans, and democracy.

The uninstructed delegates stand for secrecy—so do the profiteers, and special interests, who are seeking greater dividends, larger profits, and additional privileges.

The voters ought to be impressed with the grave importance of this election. If they are not, they can hardly complain of high taxes, high cost of living, and of bearing the burden of the war debt.

Plans Made By ENGINEER CLUB

Move to Affiliate With Commerce Association for Civic Improvement

Legislation requiring engineers to take out a license or register may be undertaken as a result of a meeting of the Madison club of the American Association of Engineering held in the engineering building at the University last night.

Wm. E. Skinner, state secretary of the association, who is in Madison getting work started, believes that such legislation would raise the standards of the profession considerably.

Movement to affiliate the club with the Madison Association of Commerce was begun last night. The Engineering club is to the engineer what the Association of Commerce is to the business man and it is thought that civic work can be promoted by affiliating the two.

"Much civic improvement," said Mr. Skinner this morning, "requires the aid of the engineer. In the past, however, engineers have lived within their own shell, letting the business men take all responsibility in civic work, much of which ought to be handled by them."

G. M. Baker, member of the state board of health, was elected a member of the board of directors at the meeting last night, and C. T. R. Wilson of the Forest Products laboratory, was elected treasurer of the club.

A committee consisting of G. M. Baker, C. T. R. Wilson and J. H. Klapp was appointed to take charge of the matter of noon luncheons. Committees to take charge of qualifications, membership, publicity, civic and legislative activities, will be appointed today by Robert D. Pray, president, acting with the board of directors.

Reduce, reduce, reduce, is the slogan of all fat people. Get thin, be slim, is the cry of fashion and society. And now comes Marmola Prescription Tablets from the same famous harmless formula as the Marmola Prescription. Being Shot as Spy

LONDON.—Awards have just been made to two Belgian women, Madame Clement and her sister, Marie D'Have, and posthumously to their father, Theophile D'Have, for giving to the Belgian general staff details of the first German gas mask. Possing as a pro-German M. D'Have was able to send one of his daughters to Havre, then the Belgian great headquarters, with a design of the mask concealed in her dress. She went by way of Holland and at the Dutch frontier she was searched for four hours in vain. Had the document been found she would have been shot.

High U. S. Taxes on Big Incomes Give Small Investors a Chance to Share the Earnings of Big Business

Since the war, for the first time, small investors, eager to share the earnings of the larger corporations, have had a chance to buy short-term notes and preferred stocks of the highest class, paying 6½ to 7 per cent interest or dividends. Heretofore securities of this class were absorbed by large investors—men and women each able to buy $25,000 to $250,000 of such issues.

Now that Uncle Sam is collecting 30, 40, 50 and even 60 per cent of the net income of that class of investors in income taxes, they have quit buying taxable securities, even when these pay as high a rate as 7 per cent. They are now putting their money into city, state, federal and other bonds that pay 4 to 5 per cent, but are mostly or altogether tax free.

This forces big corporations, including the public service companies, to find a new source of capital to expand their business. Indeed their expansion is virtually limited to the extent that they can find new sources of capital for development. On the other hand, it gives small investors their first chance to buy these high grade securities in small amounts.

Wisconsin Gas & Electric Company and The Milwaukee Electric Railway & Light Company during the past three years have met this problem by selling their new securities, as authorized by the State for the public service, directly to small investors here at home. Nearly 7,000 Wisconsin men and women now draw regular interest or dividends from the earnings of these companies. The sum—nearly $5,000,000—which they have invested in these companies during those years, has enabled the companies to increase their services, and has turned nearly $350,000 a year of interest and dividends into the bank accounts of Wisconsin small investors who never before had a chance to share the earnings of large corporations.

Wisconsin Gas & Electric is now selling two new issues:

$500,000 of 5-year, convertible, 7 per cent gold notes.

$500,000 of participating 7 per cent preferred stock.

You can buy the notes in $50, $100, $500 and $1,000 sizes. Their 7 per cent interest is payable March 1 and September 1. They come due March 1, 1925. On any interest date to September 1, 1924, you can exchange them if you so desire, for shares of the 7 per cent preferred stock.

The preferred stock is sold in $100 shares. Its 7 per cent dividends are payable quarterly—April 15, July 15, October 15 and January 15.

Price, either issue, par for cash. Bank draft or certified check should be sent with mail orders.

Either of these 7 per cent securities will yield the small investor over 6 per cent NET INCOME, after you have paid both the State and Federal income taxes. This is a high rate considering the safety of the principal and the dependability of the income.

Four Teams Scramble For Cup At State Meet

Local Quintet Will Battle Racine High For Third Place; Afternoon Games Cancelled

Practically every game of the series was featured by a strong comeback in the second half which succeeded in winning for the team short in the race at the close of the first period. The games were all of a calibre superior to that ordinarily played by high school teams and practically every one produced one man sufficiently good to be classed as a star.

The Monroe team, however, gave the best performance of grit and stamina of any of the contestants when it participated in two games, one in the afternoon and one in the evening, winning the first by one point and losing the second by three points in the last minute of play. The afternoon contest with La Crosse was won by a brilliant comeback in the early part of the second half, and the loss of the evening game was due largely to the physical strain resulting from the strenuousness of two games. The Neenah five, playing in the tournament for the first time last night, was pitted against Monroe as a result of the drawings from the four winning teams, and earned the privilege of competing in today's semi-finals.

Monroe 24, La Crosse 23

The first game of the afternoon afforded the spectators the most excitement and was the most closely played of any of the day's battles. The La Crosse five, which gave Madison so much opposition a few weeks ago, was not playing up to standard. The battle was the best spectacle of a see-saw game featured by strong comebacks, slumps on both sides, and flashes of brilliant playing.

Bruni, Monroe left guard, played a strong game for his team until he was ruled out for exceeding the personal foul limit. Roth, who took his place was almost as fast. Carr and Hauser divided scoring honors for the winners with 8 points each. Fitzke garnered the most baskets for La Crosse with four field goals and two free throws. Vondrashik was second with 5 points.

The lineups:

RACINE 18, EAU CLAIRE 12

This contest was perhaps the best played of the day, as an exhibition of good basketball, although from the standpoint of interest it afforded less excitement than any of the others. Racine outclassed Eau Claire throughout, but for a time in the second half after a comeback on the part of the Eau Claire five,
the outcome was doubtful.

The first half was Racine's throughout and the Eau Claire forwards were held scoreless with the exception of a lone free throw by Olson. The Racine five was able to total only 8 points due to poor shooting but had much the better of the argument in floor work and defense.

MENOMONEE 19, STEVENS POINT 14

This contest was the first of the series of consolation games to be played by the teams eliminated from the semi-finals by virtue of the loss of one game. Stevens Point was eliminated from participation in any of the remaining games because of her defeat.

Menomonee after losing to the strong Superior team Thursday evening came back and outplayed the Stevens Point five, although they trailed the losers by one point at the end of the first period. Here again the outcome was the result of a strong comeback in the second half in which the Menomonee quintet scored 9 points to their opponents' 3.

The lineup:

Menomonee Stevens Point

NEENAH 21, MONROE 18

The last game in many respects was the best of the four played during the day, and was without doubt the fastest and most interesting from the standpoint of a spectator.
The Monroe team, tired from one victory earned in the afternoon, came back and played the fresh Neenah five on even terms, but was beaten out in the last minutes of play.

The first half ended with Monroe in the lead 12 to 9, and apparently good for two more games, but early in the second half the pace began to tell and the Neenah forwards began to break away from their guards to score enough points to knock the count. Both teams were fighting desperately every minute of the battle, and the Monroe men must have been playing on pure grit alone, for their afternoon game was by no means an easy one.

Win in Last Seconds

With very little time left to play
Carr looped a beauty from the side which gave his teammates a one point lead and put the score at 14 to 13. A moment later Thornton for Neenah came through with two free throws which put hi steam in the lead. With a minute to play Sund, Neenah, substituting for Pinkerton, got under the basket and dropped in a marker which was enough to win.

Chappelle Fast Forward

The outstanding player of the day's series came to light in this game in the person of Chappelle, midnet Neenah forward. There was hardly a play which he was not mixed up in, and his dribbling was by far the best exhibited so far.
His shooting was not exceptional,
but he fed the ball to his running mate, Pinkerton, as well as the other players, enough times to score twice the number of points.

The lineup:

Neenah Monroe
Pinkerton.....RF.....Rood
Chappelle.....LF.....Carr
Christoph.....C.....Hauser
Riegall.....RG.....Wood
Thornton.....LG.....Bruni

Substitutions—Sund for Pinkerton, Roth for Rood.

Field goals—Chappelle 3, Carr 3,
Wood 3, Pinkerton 3, Christoph 2,
Hauser 1, Sund 1.

Free throws—Thornton 2 out of 3, Carr 4 out of 6, Chappelle 1 out of 2.

Referee—Schommer.

WRESTLERS READY FOR FAST BOUT

Kid Hanson Meets Jap Champion in Crucial Con- test Tonight; First Match at 9:15

WHAT THEY SAY
Kid Hanson—I believe that my extra weight and youth will offset any advantage the Jap
may have on me in the matter of grips with which I am not familiar. I am not trying to discredit Matsuda. I realize that he has thrown some mighty fast men and that I will have a real battle tonight, but I am confident that I can win.

Matty Matsuda—I have won over some mighty clever wrestlers in the light heavy division in the last two years and I do not think that I will be defeated tonight. I will give the fans all I have in me and I can assure them that they will see a bout that is well worth the price. I never felt better in my life than I do today.

A capacity crowd with standing room at a premium is promised for Turner hall tonight, when Dr. E. L.
Bump, Madison wrestling promoter, brings Matty Matsuda, the Jap middleweight, onto the mat with Kid Hanson, Madison favorite of the light heavy type.

The three-contest card promises to be the best offered Madison fans
since the revival of wrestling here.
Two good preliminaries are on the program in addition to the wind-up.

The advance sale of seats at Galvin's, West Main street, has been exceptionally heavy.

Matsuda arrived in Madison at noon yesterday from Chicago, going at once to the university gym where he broke out with several variety wrestling stars. Hanson worked out at the gym during the morning.
Hanson will tip the scales at 175 when he enters the ring, while the Jap will weigh in at 158. Both appear to be in tip-top shape for the go.

Hanson is playing for a big stake here tonight, "Doc" Bump having promised him a championship match for the light heavy title in this city as a wind-up for the season provided that he goes along without a mark against his record of no defeats.

The first bout will be called tonight at 9:15, when Young Albert Marty, Springfield, will meet Young Doc Sannes of Madison in a finish go. The second preliminary will be between Young Kid Sannes, Madison, and Johnny Wilson, Edgerton.
Joe Steinhauer, university wrestling coach, will again preside over the bouts.

ROUNDY'S CORNER

Schommer had the janitor go down and shut the doors in the gym as from the long shots Carr was making for Monroe he thought he was throwing them in from out doors.

Coach Lowman
of the Varsity squad were off-

CHICAGO GRAIN REVIEW.

CHICAGO—Free selling on the part of commission houses had a weakening effect today on the corn market. The selling was based largely on opinions that the recent advance had been overdone and that corn was no longer profitable to feed. No declines, however, shorts covered freely and the market rallied. Opening prices which varied from unchanged figures to 2½¢ lower with May 1.51½ to 1.52 and July 1.44 to 1.45½ were followed by upturns all around from the initial bottom level.

Later the market bulged sharply, influenced more or less by dry weather reports from the southwest and by week-end evening up. The close was strong, 2½¢ net higher, with May 1.55½¢ and July 1.48½ to 1.49½.

The JORDAN Silhouette

SO wide-spread has been the appreciation of this Jordan that men and women voluntarily refer to it as "The American Ace of Light Cars."

Grace and color and line to a rare degree have lifted it out of the commonplace into the unusual.

Comfort, and performance and reliability have made the Jordan the choice of men who know motor cars.

Here then, is a car high grade, light in weight, perfectly balanced and rattle-proof, that will honestly retain these characteristics.

It is quiet—as a car of character should be—and it carries with it an atmosphere which is in perfect keeping with that good taste in every detail which the name Jordan instantly suggests.

PACT FAILS BY THE VOTE OF 49 TO 35

Treaty is Sent Back to President; White House Silent on Vote

KNOX PLAN NOW UP

Declares State of War With Germany At An End; Day of Oratory

Continued.

Declaration in relation to the interests of the United States in the freedom and peace of Europe is a declaration of policy to which few Americans can object no matter how vigorously and profoundly opposed to any political alliance between America and Europe.

Failure of the senate to ratify the treaty will not halt the negotiations between the United States and the allies on the Turkish settlement. It was explained that the entire government's opinion and that the U. S. would be justified in expressing its views because if it should eventually enter the league of nations it would be interested in which was done with regard to Turkey before it became a member of the league.

As to the situation now existing between Germany and the U. S., it was said that America could negotiate a modus vivendi with Germany and with the allies covering its rights under the treaty. It also was said that the United States could continue to police the zones assigned to it pending the holding of the plebiscites in certain German districts because the expense of this is borne by Germany.

Since the armistice terms continued in effect between U. S. and Germany and the declaration of peace, it was said that there would be no change in the status of the American troops on the Rhine. These now are acting under orders only from the war department as the other nations maintained armed forces on the Rhine have become parties to the peace treaty.

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON—With the peace treaty on its way back to the White House today, accompanied by notification to the president that the senate had finally refused to advise and consent to its ratification, Senator Knox's resolution to declare a state of peace with Germany will take place on the senate floor. Consideration last night after the adverse vote on ratification was blocked by adjournment until Monday.

Republican leaders expect some such measure to be passed.

Suggestion that President Wilson might return the treaty to the senate brought emphatic statements from the majority that it virtually would be re-negotiated in the foreign relations committee. In any case, the treaty question was regarded as already injected into the presidential campaign as one of the main issues on which republicans and democrats will fight for national endorsement this fall.

Ratification was defeated last night by a vote of 49 to 35, the line-up being 28 republicans and 21 democrats for and 23 democrats and 12 republicans against. The net result of four months' compromise negotiations was the addition of 17 democrats to those voting for ratification.

The defeat of the treaty, the second time in four months, was accomplished by a combination of administration Democrats obeying the command of the president to reject the covenant, as modified by the protective reservations, and the Republican and Democratic "irreconcilables" who oppose a league of nations in any form.

Treaty Goes Back to Wilson

Amid efforts of Senator Hitchcock to keep the treaty still before the senate, in spite of its second defeat, Senator Lodge immediately after the ratification roll call, offered a resolution to return the treaty to the president with formal notice of its failure. This resolution was adopted by a vote of 47 to 37.

When the failure of the treaty was communicated to the White House Secretary Tumulty said the president would have no comment to make tonight.

Strenuous efforts were made by the administration leaders to obtain a reconsideration of the vote by which the treaty failed of ratification. Mon, even after it had been ordered returned to the president.

When these moves were ruled out of order Senator Lodge said he was willing to have another vote, and asked unanimous consent that it be had at once. Senator Hitchcock objected to another vote at once, and the Republicans would not agree to a postponement.

Doldrums of Oratory

The ratification roll call came shortly after 6 o'clock, following a day of listless oratory on the subject of the covenant and the reservations. The roll was called in a tense silence, with scores of persons in the crowded galleries keeping tally.

The result had been accurately forecast for forty-eight hours by the leaders on each side. Senator Hitchcock held twenty-three Democrats in line against the treaty, while twenty-one deserted the president. The conspicuous recruits today to the ranks of the Democrats in revolt against the president were Senators Walsh, Montana, Randall, Louisiana, and Smith, Maryland.

NEWBERRY IS FOUND GUILTY

In fact only among the wives of men who had been freed.

Judge Sessions announced he would allow the defense 90 days in which to perfect an appeal and meanwhile would release the convicted men on bonds. The amount of bail for each was fixed at the same amount under which the men were held for trial but the court ordered that the bonds be renewed or new ones filed. It was exactly 11:12 a. m. when the court announced that a verdict had been agreed upon. Eleven minutes later most of the defendants and their attorneys had reached the court and James O. Murfin, chief counsel for the defense, announced they were ready to hear the findings. At 11:26 the jury took their seats and one minute later the word "Guilty" came from the lips of Martin Block, Charlevoix grocer, and foreman of the jury. It took only ten minutes to read and check the verdict and discharge the jury.

"The fight has only begun," said Chief Counsel Murfin of the defense and his thought was echoed by Martin W. Littleton of New York.

The verdict was described as almost exact justice by Frank C. Dailey and W. H. Eichhorn, attorneys who have been in charge of the government case.

There are two claimants for priority in the invention of an automobile towing pole. H. L. Duxstad of Cambridge says in a communication to The Capital Times:

REFERENDUM RESOLUTIONS POSTPONED

Street Railway Vote Referred to Committee to Report Friday

PAVING PROGRAM FIXED

Two Negligence Claims Were Presented, One for $5,000

No vote was taken on resolutions introduced by J. H. Brown and Joseph A. Rupp at the meeting of the council Friday evening providing for a referendum at the spring election on the question, "Shall the city of Madison acquire the property actually used and useful for the convention of the public of the Madison Railways Co." Both resolutions were referred to the judiciary committee with instructions to report back at the meeting of the council next Friday evening, at the request of the authors.

With the exception of University ave., Bedford to Park st., action on which was deferred to next Friday, and W. Washington ave., which the council voted not to pave at its meeting last week, the entire street paving program for 1920 was adopted by the council as originally drawn up, when the recommendations of the board of public works were adopted. The report of the board, signed by Frank W. Karstens, and Lawrence Freney, recommended use of Trinidad asphalt, rejecting Aztec asphalt as not up to the same standard. A minority report by F. W. Lucas, favoring acceptance of Aztec asphalt for use on several streets as an experiment, was placed on file.

A meeting of the street committee and the board of public works was held before the council meeting. Several protests from property owners were heard.

The street program as it now stands is as follows:

W. Washington ave., definitely rejected last Friday.

University ave., action deferred until next Friday.

Rugby row, Virginia terrace, Commonwealth ave., Keyes ave., and Leonard st., ordered paved last Friday.

Seventh st., Evergreen ave., Jackson st., Lakeland ave., Marquette ave., Schiller ave., Center ave., Johnson st., Warren st., Elmside blvd., La Follette ave., Waubesa st., Division st., Park st., ordered paved by adoption of the recommendations of the board of public works. In voting on the report of the board, Ald. D. C. Sullivan excepted Seventh st. There had been some debate on Seventh st. because of the objection of property holders.

The Civic club and the Madison Association of Commerce submitted resolutions complimenting the council on its adoption of the city planning ordinance.

A claim presented by H. W. Dresser for damages against the city for injury sustained by his wife, Mrs. A. A. Dresser, as a result of a fall on a slippery sidewalk, and a claim for $5,000 submitted by Lorrain Kopp for a broken hip as a result of a fall on a slippery sidewalk, were referred to the judiciary committee. The first claim alleged that Mrs. Dresser's memory had been impaired.

L. A. Smith, superintendent of waterworks, submitted a report in which he explained that Ald. Patrick H. Barry's resolution passed by the council March 12, providing that all appropriations of more than $100 must be submitted to the council for a vote, would seriously handicap his department. He said the resolution would operate to delay completion of the central heating plant until two or three months after opening of school.

Separate resolutions providing for payment of amounts less than $500 had to be passed upon by the council, after debate, as a result of the Barry resolution. Later a resolution introduced by Ald. John Stock, providing that only such equipment as trucks, wagons, and horses, and such other equipment whose purchase would not interfere with the operation of departments, was adopted unanimously, superseding the Barry resolution.

Just before adjournment, Ald. J. H. Brown's motion to reconsider the recommendations of the board of public works in view of the minority report, was defeated, 5 to 12.

J. H. Boyd's request that he be granted a five-year lease on the Monona park auditorium was referred back to the Monona park committee. He offered to pay $600 annually for the privilege, making improvements to the extent of $6,000 in the building.

Alcohol Condemned As Vaccination Aid

Because smallpox is prevalent in many parts of Wisconsin, a warning issued by the United States public health service to physicians relative to cautions against the use of alcohol containing phenol has special application in this state. Physicians are advised against the use of denatured ethyl alcohol containing phenol (carbolic acid) for the purpose of cleansing the skin at the site of vaccination against smallpox. It is believed that such procedure would materially decrease the likelihood of securing successful "takes" from smallpox vaccine, and it is suggested that cleansing the skin with soap and water is preferable, and that if another agent is desired other might be used.
